My dear Mr. Dulles,
I am writing to ask a favor of you. I know you are very busy, but if you will grant my request, I will be so happy and will appreciate your kindness.

I am an invalid in wheel chair, from Arthritis. My hands are also crippled, so please excuse my writing.

My hobby is reading and studying all about our wonderful Country, and Collecting Autograph pages, of pictures of people I greatly admire. Last summer, I started my

President Kennedy album, and would like for you to autograph my page of your picture with the President and also your page with just your picture.

I will be so honored to have your autograph pictures in my album.

Thank you for your kindness and God bless you in your work.

Sincerely yours

Elisabeth Mohler.

My dear Mr. Dulles,

Thank you for
autographing my page.
I am so proud to have your picture in my -
Presidents Album I,
and I feel honored to think, that as busy
as I know you are,
you took time to
answer my letter.
I also love you

taken with your brother the Honorable John Foster Dulles, on the day
she was appointed Ambassador. I am so very proud of it, as I always admired your brother and felt he was a great man.

Sincerely

Elaine G. Mohler
(Mrs. Marshall D. Mohler)

letter in my album.
I also have an Album I call, "my Ambassador and Embassy" of the U.S. I keep up with each Country I write to the Ambassador.
When I wrote to the Honorable Frances E.
Willis, in Norway, she wrote me the history of our Embassy and enclosed a picture
